Item 5.02(e) Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan

On July 27, 2012, the Board of Directors of Haemonetics Corporation (the "Company") adopted the Haemonetics Corporation Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan is a nonqualified deferred compensation plan intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Plan is effective July 27, 2012 and provides an opportunity for eligible employees and directors of the Company to save for retirement on a tax-deferred basis. Pursuant to the Plan, eligible executives, including the Company's named executive officers and other highly compensated or management level employees, and members of the Board of Directors, are provided the opportunity to defer payment of certain base salary, bonus, commissions, director's fees, restricted stock units, and long-term cash awards, and, if authorized in the future by the Board, receive certain employer contributions, in accordance with the terms and provisions set forth in the Plan.

The amount of compensation to be deferred by each participant is determined in accordance with the Plan based on elections by each participant. The Company, in its complete and sole discretion, will determine the amount, if any, of the Company contributions to be made to each participant. Such contributions may be made as a matching contribution, profit-sharing contribution or in any other manner as the Company may determine from time to time. At this time, no Company contributions are being contemplated by the Board.

Participants will be vested at all times in amounts deferred and any Company contributions will vest based upon a vesting schedule determined by the Committee, which administers the Plan. Amounts will be credited with investment returns based on deemed investment vehicles selected by the participant from a menu of deemed investment vehicles determined by the Committee from time to time. Each payment obligation for distribution of the deferred compensation is payable in cash or in stock in the case of deferred restricted stock units. Unless the Committee determines otherwise in writing, payments are made on a date or dates selected by each participant at the time of enrollment, subject to change in specified circumstances.

The Company may amend or terminate the Plan at any time, provided that no such action shall reduce a participant's account balances.

Change in Chief Executive Officer's Compensation

On July 27, 2012, the Board of Directors increased the base salary and target bonus of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Brian Concannon. Mr. Concannon's base salary was increased from $550,000 per year to $580,000 per year. In addition, Mr. Concannon is now eligible for a target annual bonus opportunity equal to 100% of his base salary, up from 75% of base salary in the prior year.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On July 27, 2012, the Company's stockholders approved an amendment to the Haemonetics Corporation By-laws which increased the maximum size of the Board of Directors from nine to twelve directors. The restated By-laws are attached as an exhibit to this 8-K.

HAEMONETICS CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

Articles of Organization

The name and purposes of the Corporation shall be as set forth in the Articles of Organization. These By-Laws, the powers of the Corporation and of its Directors and shareholders, and all matters concerning the conduct and regulation of the business of the Corporation shall be subject to such provisions in regard thereto, if any, as are set forth in the Articles of Organization; and the Articles of Organization, as from time to time amended, are hereby made a part of these By-Laws. All references in these By-Laws to the Articles of Organization shall be construed to mean the Articles of Organization of the Corporation as from time to time amended.

ARTICLE II

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on a date and at a time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or the President and stated in the notice of the meeting. Purposes for which an Annual Meeting is to be held, additional to those prescribed by law and these By-Laws, may be specified solely by the Directors.

If such Annual Meeting has not been held as herein provided, or the time for an Annual Meeting is not fixed in accordance with these By-Laws to be held within thirteen (13) months after the last Annual Meeting was held, a Special Meeting of the Shareholders in Lieu of the Annual Meeting may be held, and any business transacted or elections held at such Special Meeting shall have the same effect as if transacted or held at the Annual Meeting, and in such case all references in these By-Laws, except in this Article II, to the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders shall be deemed to refer to such Special Meeting. Any such Special Meeting shall be called, and the purposes thereof shall be specified in the Call, as provided in Article III of these By-Laws.

To be properly brought before the meeting, business must be of a nature that is appropriate for consideration at an Annual Meeting and must be (i) specified in the notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, (ii) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or (iii) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a shareholder in accordance with clause (a) or (b) below, as applicable.

- (a) In addition to any other applicable requirements, for business to be properly brought by a shareholder at the Corporation's Annual Meeting to be held in 2005, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, each such notice must be given either by personal delivery or by United States mail, postage prepaid, to the Secretary of the Corporation not later than sixty (60) days prior to the date such meeting was held in the prior year. The notice shall set forth (i) information concerning the shareholder, including his or her name and address, (ii) a representation that the shareholder is entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to present the matter specified in the notice, and (iii) such other information as would be required to be included in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the presentation of such matter to the meeting.

- (b) In addition to any other applicable requirements, for business to be properly brought by a shareholder at the Corporation's Annual Meetings to be held in 2006 and thereafter, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a shareholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 90th day nor earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's Annual Meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the Annual Meeting is advanced by more than 30 days before or delayed by more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the shareholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such Annual Meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such Annual Meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. Such shareholder's notice shall set forth (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting, any material interest in such business of such shareholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made, and the names and addresses of other shareholders known by the shareholder proposing such business to support such proposal, and the class and number of shares of the Corporation's capital stock beneficially owned by such other shareholders; and (b) as to the shareholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made (i) the name and address of such shareholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner, and (ii) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such shareholder and such beneficial owner.

Only such business shall be conducted at an Annual Meeting as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the provisions of this By-law. The Board of Directors or a designated committee thereof shall have the power to determine whether any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made in accordance with the provisions of this By-law. If neither the Board of Directors nor such designated committee makes a determination as to whether any shareholder proposal was made in accordance with the provisions of this By-law, the presiding officer of the Annual Meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether the shareholder proposal was made in accordance with the provisions of this By-law. If the Board of Directors or a designated committee thereof or the presiding officer, as applicable, determines that any shareholder proposal was not made in accordance with the provisions of this By-law, such proposal or nomination shall be disregarded and shall not be presented for action at the Annual Meeting.

For purposes of this By-law, "public announcement" shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press, Business Wire or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this By-law, a shareholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this By-law. Nothing in this By-law shall be deemed to affect any rights of shareholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act.

ARTICLE III

Special Meetings of Shareholders

A Special Meeting of the Shareholders may be called at any time by the President, or by a majority of the Directors acting by vote or by written instrument or instruments signed by them. A Special Meeting of Shareholders shall be called by the Secretary, or in the case of the death, absence, incapacity or refusal of the Secretary, by any other officer, upon written application of one or more shareholders who hold at least (i) eighty percent (80%) in interest of the capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting, or (ii) such lesser percentage, if any, (but not less than forty percent (40%)) as shall be determined to be the maximum percentage which the Corporation is permitted by applicable law to establish for the call of such a meeting. Such call shall state the time, place, and purposes of the meeting. Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice may be conducted at a Special Meeting.

ARTICLE IV

Place of Shareholders' Meetings

All meetings of the shareholders shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation in Massachusetts, unless a different place within Massachusetts or, if permitted by the Articles of Organization, elsewhere within the United States is designated by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, or by a majority of the Directors acting by vote or by written instrument or instruments signed by them. Any adjourned session of any meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within Massachusetts or, if permitted by the Articles of Organization, elsewhere within the United States as is designated in the vote of adjournment.

ARTICLE V

Notice of Shareholders' Meetings

A written Notice of the place, date and hour of all meetings of shareholders stating the purposes of the meeting shall be given at least seven (7) days and not more than sixty (60) days before the meeting to each shareholder entitled to vote thereat, by leaving such Notice with him or at his residence or usual place of business, or by mailing, postage prepaid, and addressed to such shareholder at his address as it appears in the records of the Corporation. Such Notice shall be given by the Secretary, or in the case of the death, absence, incapacity or refusal of the Secretary, by any other officer or by a person designated either by the Secretary, by the person or persons calling the meeting or by the Board of Directors. Notice may be delivered to a shareholder by electronic transmission in a manner specified by the shareholder, including by facsimile transmission, electronic mail or posting on an electronic network. Whenever Notice of a meeting is required to be given a shareholder under any provision of law, of the Articles of Organization, or of these By-Laws, a written Waiver thereof, executed before or after the meeting by such shareholder or his attorney thereunto authorized, and filed with the records of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to such Notice. In addition, any shareholder who attends the meeting (i) without objecting to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting at the beginning of the meeting waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting or (ii) without objecting to the consideration of a particular matter when it is presented waives objection that consideration of the matter is not within the purposes described in the notice for such meeting.

ARTICLE VI

Quorum of Shareholders; Adjournment

At any meeting of the shareholders, a quorum for the election of any Director or for the consideration of any question shall consist of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter, except that if two or more voting groups are entitled to vote for the election of any Director or upon any question, then in the case of each such voting group a quorum for the election of any Director or for the consideration of such question shall consist of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group. As used in these By-Laws, a voting group includes all shares of one or more classes or series that, under the Articles of Organization or the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act, are entitled to vote and to be counted together collectively on a matter at a meeting of shareholders. Stock owned by the Corporation, if any, except stock held directly or indirectly by it in a fiduciary capacity, shall be disregarded in determining any quorum.

Whether or not a quorum is present, any meeting may be adjourned from time to time by a majority of the votes properly cast upon the question, and the meeting may be held as adjourned without further notice. When any meeting is convened, the presiding officer may adjourn the meeting if (a) no quorum is present for the transaction of business, (b) the Board of Directors determines that adjournment is necessary or appropriate to enable the shareholders to consider fully information which the Board of Directors determines has not been made sufficiently or timely available to shareholders, or (c) the Board of Directors determines that adjournment is otherwise in the best interests of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VII

Proxies and Voting

Except as may otherwise be provided in the Articles of Organization, shareholders entitled to vote shall have one vote for each share of stock entitled to vote owned by them. Shareholders entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy, which vote may consist of an electronic transmission in accordance with the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act. Except as otherwise provided by law, no proxy dated more than eleven (11) months before the meeting named therein shall be valid and no proxy shall be valid after the final adjournment of such meeting. A proxy with respect to stock held in the name of two or more persons shall be valid if executed by any one of them unless at or prior to the exercise of the proxy the Corporation receives specific written notice to the contrary from any one of them. Subject to Section 7.24 of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act (or any successor provision), a proxy purporting to be executed by or on behalf of a shareholder shall be deemed valid unless challenged at or prior to its exercise and the burden of proving invalidity shall rest on the challenger. Proxies shall be filed with the Secretary, or person performing the duties of secretary, at the meeting, or any adjournment thereof, before being voted.

When a quorum for an election is present at any meeting, a plurality of the votes properly cast for any office shall elect such office. When a quorum for the consideration of a proposal is present at any meeting, favorable action on the proposal is taken if the votes cast favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action; except that if two or more voting groups are entitled to vote upon such proposal, then in the case of each such voting group, favorable action on the proposal is taken if the votes cast within the group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action; and except in any case where a different vote is required by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-Laws.

The Corporation shall not, directly or indirectly, vote upon any share of its own stock; but nothing herein shall be construed as limiting the right of the Corporation to vote shares of stock held directly or indirectly by it in a fiduciary capacity.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if all shareholders entitled to vote on the matter consent to the action in writing and the written Consents are delivered to the Corporation for inclusion with the records of the meetings of shareholders within sixty (60) days of the earliest dated Consent delivered to the Corporation. Such Consents shall be treated for all purposes as a vote at a meeting.

The Chairman of the Board, or in his absence the President, or in absence of both the Chairman of the Board and the President, a Vice-President shall call meetings of the shareholders to order and shall act as chairman (presiding officer) thereof. The Secretary of the Corporation, if present, shall record the proceedings of all meetings of shareholders and, in the absence of the Secretary, the presiding officer may appoint a secretary pro tempore of the meeting.

Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Organization, if authorized by the Board of Directors, subject to such guidelines and procedures as the Board of Directors may adopt, shareholders and proxyholders not physically present at a meeting of shareholders may, by means of remote communications: (i) participate in a meeting of shareholders; and (ii) be deemed present in person and vote at a meeting of shareholders, provided that: (a) the Corporation shall implement reasonable measures to verify that each person deemed present and permitted to vote at the meeting by means of remote communication is a shareholder or proxyholder; (b) the Corporation shall implement reasonable measures to provide such shareholders and proxyholders a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the shareholders, including an opportunity to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially concurrently with such proceedings; and (c) if any shareholder or proxyholder votes or takes other action at the meeting by means of remote communication, a record of such vote or other action shall be maintained by the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

Board of Directors

The business and affairs of this Corporation shall be managed under the direction of a Board of Directors consisting of not fewer than three (3) nor more than twelve (12) Directors, the exact number to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors, such Board of Directors to be divided into such classes and elected by such shareholders as have the right to vote thereon, for such terms as are provided in the Articles of Organization. Each Director shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified subject to Article XVIII of these By-Laws. Whenever used in these By-Laws, the phrase "entire Board of Directors" shall mean that number of Directors fixed by the most recent resolution adopted pursuant to the preceding sentence prior to the date as of which a determination of the number of Directors then constituting the entire Board of Directors shall be relevant for any purpose under these By-Laws. No Director need be a shareholder.

Nominations for the election of Directors may be made by the Board of Directors or a committee appointed by the Board of Directors or by any shareholder entitled to vote generally in the election of Directors. However, any shareholder entitled to vote generally in the election of Directors may nominate one or more persons for election as Directors at a meeting only in accordance with the following clause (a) or (b), as applicable.

- (a) In addition to any other applicable requirements, for a shareholder to properly nominate one or more persons for election as Directors at the Corporation's Annual Meeting to be held in 2005, the shareholder must provide written notice of such shareholder's intent to make such nomination or nominations, either by personal delivery or by United States mail, postage prepaid, to the Secretary of the Corporation not later than sixty (60) days prior to the date of the prior year's Annual Meeting. Each such notice to the Secretary shall set forth (i) the names and addresses of the shareholder and his or her nominees; (ii) a representation that the shareholder is entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and each such nominee; (iv) such other information as would be required to be included in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of the nominees of such shareholder; and (v) the consent of each nominee to serve as a Director of the Corporation if so elected. The Corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as may reasonably be required by the Corporation to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a Director of the Corporation. The presiding officer of the meeting may, if the facts warrant, determine that a nomination was not made in accordance with the foregoing procedure, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.

- (b) In addition to any other applicable requirements, for a shareholder to properly nominate one or more persons for election as Directors at the Corporation's Annual Meetings to be held in 2006 and thereafter, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a shareholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 90th day nor earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's Annual Meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the Annual Meeting is advanced by more than 30 days before or delayed by more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the shareholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such Annual Meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such Annual Meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. Such shareholder's notice shall set forth (a) as to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director, all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); and (b) as to the shareholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is made (i) the name and address of such shareholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner, and (ii) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such shareholder and such beneficial owner.

Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of the foregoing clause (b) to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation is increased and there is no public announcement naming all of the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors made by the Corporation at least 85 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's Annual Meeting, a shareholder's notice required by this By-law shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the provisions of this By-law shall be eligible for election and to serve as directors. The Board of Directors or a designated committee thereof shall have the power to determine whether a nomination was made in accordance with the provisions of this By-law. If neither the Board of Directors nor such designated committee makes a determination as to whether any nomination was made in accordance with the provisions of this By-law, the presiding officer of the Annual Meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether the nomination was made in accordance with the provisions of this By-law. If the Board of Directors or a designated committee thereof or the presiding officer, as applicable, determines that any nomination was not made in accordance with the provisions of this By-law, such proposal or nomination shall be disregarded and shall not be presented for action at the Annual Meeting.

For purposes of this By-law, "public announcement" shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press, Business Wire or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this By-law, a shareholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this By-law.

ARTICLE IX

Powers of Directors

The business of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of the Board of Directors, which shall exercise all the powers of the Corporation except as otherwise required by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-Laws. In the event of one or more vacancies in the Board of Directors, the remaining Directors, except as otherwise required by law, may exercise the powers of the full Board until such vacancy or vacancies are filled.

Any unissued capital stock from time to time authorized under the Articles of Organization and Amendments thereto may be issued, and any shares of capital stock restored to the status of authorized but unissued stock may be reissued, by vote of the Directors.

ARTICLE X

Committees of Directors

By vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, the Directors may elect from their own number an Executive Committee or other Committees and may by like vote delegate to any such Committee some or all of their powers except those which by law may not be delegated.

ARTICLE XI

Meetings of the Board of Directors;

Action without a Meeting

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without call or notice at such places and at such times as the Board may from time to time determine; provided, however, that reasonable notice of such determination and of any changes therein is given to each member of the Board then in office. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors may be held without call or notice immediately after and at the same place as the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, or any Special Meeting held in lieu thereof.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time and at any place when called by the President, the Treasurer, the Chairman of the Board, or two or more Directors, reasonable notice thereof being given to each Director by the Secretary, or in the case of death, absence, incapacity or refusal of the Secretary, by the officer or Directors calling the meeting. In any case, it shall be deemed sufficient notice to a Director to send notice by mail at least forty-eight (48) hours, or by telegram or by facsimile transmission or other electronic means at least twenty-four (24) hours, before the meeting, addressed to him at his usual or last known business or residence address (which may include his telecopy number or electronic mail address); or to give notice to him in person, either by telephone or by handing him a written notice, at least twenty-four (24) hours before the meeting.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, notice of a meeting need not be given to any Director if a written waiver of notice, executed by him before or after the meeting, or delivered by means of electronic transmission, is filed with the records of the meeting, or to any Director who attends the meeting without protesting at its commencement or promptly upon his arrival, the holding of the meeting, or who thereafter votes for or assents to any action taken at the meeting. A notice of a meeting or a waiver of notice need not specify the purposes of the meeting.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Directors may be taken without a meeting if a written consent thereto is signed by all the Directors, or delivered to the Corporation by means of electronic transmission, and such written consent is filed with the records of the meetings of the Directors. Such consent shall be treated as a vote at a meeting for all purposes. Such consents may be executed in one or more counterparts and not every Director need sign the same counterpart.

Members of the Board of Directors or any committee designated thereby may participate in a meeting of such Board or committee by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

ARTICLE XII

Quorum of Directors

At any meeting of the Board of Directors, a quorum shall consist of a majority of the Directors then in office, but a smaller number may make a determination pursuant to Section 8.55 or Section 8.56 of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act, or any successor provision. Any meeting may be adjourned from time to time by a majority of the votes cast upon the question, whether or not a quorum is present, and the meeting may be held as adjourned without further notice. When a quorum is present at any meeting, the votes of a majority of the Directors present shall be requisite and sufficient for appointment to any office, and a majority of the Directors present shall decide any question brought before such meeting, except in any case where a different vote is required by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-Laws.

ARTICLE XIII

Officers and Agents

The officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Chairman of the Board, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and such other officers, which may include a Controller, one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Treasurers, Assistant Secretaries, or Assistant Controllers, as the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, appoint. The Corporation may also have such agents, if any, as the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, appoint. The President need not be a Director. The Secretary shall be a resident of Massachusetts unless the Corporation has a resident agent appointed for the purpose of receiving service of process. So far as is permitted by law, any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

Subject to law, to the Articles of Organization and the other provisions of these By-Laws, each officer shall have, in addition to the duties and powers herein set forth, such duties and powers as are commonly incident to his office and as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

The President, Chairman of the Board, Treasurer and Secretary shall be appointed annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, by vote of a majority of the full Board of Directors. Such other officers of the Corporation as may be created in accordance with these By-Laws may be filled at such meeting by vote of a majority of the full Board of Directors or any other time by vote of a majority of the Directors then in office.

Each officer shall (subject to Article XVIII of these By-Laws) hold office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors following the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until his successor is appointed and qualified, or until he sooner dies, resigns, is removed, or becomes disqualified. Each agent shall retain his authority at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Any officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation may be required, as and if determined by the Board of Directors, to give bond for the faithful performance of his duties.
